

Contact

✉ nstanard@gmail.com

Professional Summary

Software Engineer specializing in front-end development for over six years. Graduated with a bachelor's degree in I.T. Innovation from the University of Nebraska, Omaha.

Skills

- AWS / Google Cloud
- React
- JavaScript
- Angular
- HTML
- Cypress
- Gatsby / GraphQL
- CSS (SCSS/LESS)
- Node & NPM
- WebPack
- CLI
- Git
- MySQL
- ally

Experience

Software Engineer

August 2016 - Present

SparkPost & eDataSource, Remote

- SparkPost acquired eDataSource October, 2019.
- Member of the Front-End Guild.
- Contributor on eDataSource products.
- Contributor on SparkPost the 2web2ui web application.
- Collaborate with UX designers.
- Program alongside Front-End peers (Guild).
- Actively work with IT leadership to translate ideas into functional user experiences.
- Build simple and reusable components.
- Support and fix HTML, CSS, and JavaScript issues.
- Manage Front-End build processes using Node, NPM scripts, Grunt, WebPack, and custom in-house build tools.

Front-End Engineer

September 2015 - August 2016

LovelySkin, Omaha, NE

- Lead Front-End Developer.
- Lead developer responsible for the Skin Specialists Omaha website rebuild.
- Lead developer responsible for the LovelySkin Spa website rebuild.
- Managed build processes using NPM scripts, Gulp, and WebPack.
- Created user experiences based on designer specifications.
- Explored and implemented new JavaScript technologies like ES6, CommonJS, and AMD.
- Created and enforced JavaScript standards through JSCS.
- Incorporated new JavaScript methodologies into the applications and build processes.
- Worked with Visual Studio and ASP .NET MVC to update the LovelySkin.com product website.

Rich Internet Application Developer

June 2014 - September 2015

Hayneedle, Omaha, NE

- Worked with project managers, product owners, and UI/UX team members to meet customer needs.
- Practiced user-oriented and agile development.
- Participated in user training and prototype feedback sessions.
- Implemented predictive search API for the Hayneedle.com.